

Spring 2008 Call for Proposals

Notes from the President:

I would like to thank everyone who participated in the Fall 2007 conference held at the University of Oklahoma Outreach Center for Continuing Education. This conference was well attended and we especially appreciated our inspirational and engaging keynote speaker, Dr. Mark Milliron!

Oklahoma Association for Institutional Research and Planning (OKAIRP) conferences provide opportunities to network, share professional experiences, and empower participants through professional development. OKAIRP is a venue for the discussion and improvement of research, assessment and planning in the state of Oklahoma.

Call for Proposals:

You are invited to participate in the OKAIRP Spring 2008 conference. The conference will be hosted by Oklahoma City Community College in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Based on feedback from the Fall 2007 conference evaluations, we are soliciting proposals from the following topics:

- Assessment Best Practices
- The Practice of the Institutional Researcher
- Institutional Planning and Effectiveness
- Institutional Research Technologies and Tools
- IPEDS

Although the preceding list is presented as a suggestion for topics that are of interest to the OKAIRP membership at large, please do not hesitate to submit a proposal on any topic that you think would be of interest to higher education professionals working in institutional research, planning, or assessment.

The time allotted for each presentation should be approximately 45 minutes. Also, include your intended target audience and any requests for special technical arrangements. Proposals are due by February 22, 2008. To submit a proposal, send the title and a brief summary through email to:
